

588. Gender tells you that sua goes with ars.
589. quas – antecedent is opes in 590.
591. unum hoc – refers to the inheritance as an abstract thing, not to the specific items.
592. isdem equals eisdem, from idem, eadem, idem.
593. dextrā – take as an abl. means. This is an adjective used as a substantive because the word manu is omitted so often.
Think of regia (domus).
- 594-595. These are various constellations.
596. In the last three words of the line, note the dative that depends on the adjective between the noun and its adjective.
Poets like this arrangement.
597. Delum - take as D.O. of petens.
598. litora – the preposition ad is omitted, a poetic usage. We should have found litoribus, a dative with the compound verb, as we find in 599.
600. rubescere – this is a choative verb, where the -esco, -escere ending, stuck on an adjective usually, indicates that the subject is beginning to do/be whatever the adjective is/indicates.
602. admoneo – since he is facing a mutiny of his crew, Acoetes cannot order, but only warn or advise. ducat – why is this a subjunctive? Think of a reason.
603. quid introduces an indirect question with prospicio.
605. sociorum primus – perhaps first mate in modern terms.
606. ut putat – qualifies praedam, because this is what the clueless Opheltes thought.
607. virgineā formā – what's the case and reason.
610. quod – antecedent is nil. Note that credi mortale means to be believed (to be) human/mortal, depending on posset.

Ars illi sua census erat; cum traderet artem, “Accipe, quas habeo, studii successor et heres,” dixit “opes,” moriensque mihi nihil ille reliquit
 praeter aquas: unum hoc possum adpellare paternum. 590
 Mox ego, ne scopulis haererem semper in isdem, addidici regimen dextra moderante carinae
 flectere et Oleniae sidus pluviale capellae Taygetenque Hyadasque oculis Arctonque notavi 595
 ventorumque domos et portus pupibus aptos.
 Forte petens Delum Chiae telluris ad oras adiplicor et dextris adducor litora remis doque levis saltus udaeque inmittor harenae:
 nox ibi consumpta est; aurora rubescere primo 600
 cooperat: exsurgo laticesque inferre recentis admoneo monstroque viam, quae ducat ad undas;
 ipse quid aura mihi tumulo promittat ab alto
 prospicio comitesque voco repetoque carinam.
 “Adsumus en” inquit sociorum primus Opheltes, 605
 utque putat, praedam deserto nactus in agro, virginea puerum dicit per litora forma.
 Ille mero somnoque gravis titubare videtur
 vixque sequi; specto cultum faciemque gradumque:
 nil ibi, quod credi posset mortale, videbam. 610
